

Prof. Érico M.M. Flores

Vice-President of the IUPAC Analytical Chemistry Division, Universidade Federal de Santa Maria (UFSM), Santa Maria, Brazil

Prof. Érico M. M. Flores has a permanent position at Federal University of Santa Maria/Brazil and is Scientific Director of Rio Grande do Sul State Research Foundation. He has experience in development of methods for sample preparation, speciation analysis and quality control using atomic spectrometry, published more than 300 papers, a book and book chapters. Érico has developed a new system of microwave induced combustion, commercialized in a number of countries. He is a titular member of Deliberative Council of Brazilian Pharmacopoea, editor or member of Editorial Board of some scientific journals and Vice-president of Analytical Chemistry Division of IUPAC.